

In the acknowledgements to his Dossier on Douglas, Allan C. Brownfeld is "particularly grateful to Gordon Davis and Douglas Caddy for their encouragement and editorial assistance and to Solveig Eggerz who contributed significantly ~~to~~ in the editorial and legal research necessary" including getting teargassed at Univ. Md. going to its library. Copyright 1970 by The New Majority Book Club, Suite 907, 1835 K St., NW, which is a cover address connecting with "Davis" and Caddy. Brownfeld and Eggerz are known to me by my recollection is hazy except that the connection is far-right. My original information was not about the involvement of Gordon Davis. The message to me was "G. Gordon" and checking with Lil confirms. I'll have to try to find time Tuesday for personal checking. The source is in a position to know. The source knew of my interest quite specifically from my earlier inquiry, which my source merely confirmed. not having been available at the time of my original inquiry, perhaps 7/72. Bither Lil nor I have seen or spoken to source in interval. This was our first direct contact. Source took Lil to lunch 11/20 and then told her, that it, gave her message saying it was for me.
