Senator Adlai Stevenson Senate Post Office Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Stevenson:

Puture shock has atruck again on my correspondence to you.

My letter deted Oct. 10, which included mention of VicesPresident Agnew, was posted that morning but even as it was being processed in the Rion post office a few hours later Agnew was convicted of tax evasion and vacated his office.

Also, the letter had a reference to a book which now has new and possibly important significance in view of the nomination of Congressman Pord as Agnew's designated successor. If you have not already read The Washington Pay-Off you might find of particular interest the 31-page chapter titled "Michard Miron. Merry Pord and other Tarmished Merces, or: You to buy an Ambassadorship for $125,000." Some of the slienstions could be worthy of congressional scrutiny in connection with the forthcoming confirmation hearings.

Very sincerely,

Ed DeMar
