largess tor

ers" against the Vietnam war, | Washington so it can return to | cluded: "It is beyond doubt arrived at the White House to Haiti and once again extract picket Tricia Nixon's dinner dance for Prince Charles and Princess Ann of England.

The FBI, ever on the alert for subversives and saboteurs, kept them under surveillance. "On the evening of July 17, 1970," solemnly states a confidential FBI memo, "special agents of the FBI, at approximately 8 p.m., observed 34 middle-aged white women in front of the White House carrying signs ...

"At 8:30 p.m.," continues the memo, "a group of 17 Indians arrived in front of the White House, apparently to protest that no Indians were invited to the ... affair."

They were joined, apparently on the spur of the moment, by "six hippie type individuals" who "proceeded to seat themselves on the sidewalk in front of the White House."

The FBI agents, in other words, spent the long evening watching 34 middle-aged women, 17 Indians and "six serious accidents, and even hippie type individuals." Elsewhere in Washington, the crime rate was going up.

Footnote: The evening, according to the FBI report, passed without incident.

Blood Report

Hemo Caribbean, the conthe FBI was ready to spy on troversial blood plasma firm. the most obscure protest has raised a howl over our report on its operations in Haiti.

We told how the firm, ample, an antiwar group of closed down for exploiting un- Haitians who were underfed women, calling themselves the dernourished Haitians, is now and underweight, the special "Concerned American Moth-pulling political strings in medical plasma from the poorest people in the Western Hemisphere.

The firm's lawyer, Joseph Sharlitt, denied Hemo Caribbean ever took commercial advantage of the poor Haitian people. Haitian donors were protected." "carefully claimed. They risked "nothing more than an hour and a half from work" to donate plasma for a $4 fee.

Sharlitt said we had told "roughly 50 per cent of the truth." Unfortunately Hemo Caribbean, the other half of the story is even more sordid than our original account.

operation was stopped, a team of six Haitian physicians in-Haitian Health Minister Dr. Alex Theard, translated from recover on his own. the French, tells of brutality, death during the daily blood letting that went on for 18 months.

Accidents "occur often among individuals with empty stomachs or physical disabilities," wrote the doctors. They referred to at least one case "of the registered death at Hemo Caribbean after plasmapheresis."

Charging that the company frequently took plasma from commission conthat the criteria used by Hemo Caribbean were not sufficient to evaluate the state health] of the donors."

The report described Hemo Caribbean's poor admission standards, lack of medical facilities and simple greed to make money. The operation, states the report, "is a com-mercial venture that takes twice the medically amount of plasma . . .

"The diet of these donors, the inadequate way they are selected, taken together with the unfavorable conditions in these centers, create a grave situation."

The blood clinics had "no facilities to treat an accident." The doctors found no consul-Two weeks before the blood tation room, no emergency room, not even an oxygen tank. Instead, an accident vicvestigated the firm's two small tim was taken "to a poorly blood clinics. Their report to ventilated room" where apparently it was hoped he would

> To keep the donors in line, they were frequently intimidated and sometimes beaten up at the clinics, according to the report. "As early as our first visit," wrote the doctors, "the attention of the Commission's members were drawn to the shocking presence of a guard with a huge club."

> Asked about the guard, a director at the blood clinic explained that "discipline was the rule of order." The doctors noted: "Several donors have reported some acts of brutality perpetrated by these guards."

© 1973. United Feature Syndicate

FBI Watch Andirson

Although the late J. Edgar Hoover refused to go along with President Nixon's illegal scheme to combat subversives, groups.

Three summers ago, for ex-