

Kraft Says FBI Tailed Him to Paris

Part of 1/17/73
Joseph Kraft, the syndicated columnist, said yesterday that the FBI had followed him to Paris in 1969 and arranged to have his hotel room bugged there.

Kraft said he was told by the FBI that William C. Sullivan, a former top official of the bureau, had been ordered to follow him.

During his testimony before the Senate Watergate committee last June, former White House counsel John W. Dean III said he had been told that Kraft's phone in Georgetown had been tapped by John J. Caulfield, a former New York police investigator who worked for the White House.

Kraft said after that testimony he asked the FBI for an explanation and was told of the Paris surveillance.

The FBI yesterday refused to comment. Sullivan, who is retired and lives in New Hampshire, could not be
