ite House Spying Claimed

Sen. Lowell R. Weicker (R-Conn.) says he has evidence. that the White House spied on a dozen major politicians and used the Internal Revenue Service to pry loose data on entertainers such as Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis Jr.

Weicker said he also has White House and other Nixon administration documents to show that IRS tax intelligence was used to protect such "White House friends" as evangelist Billy Graham and movie star John Wayne once tax aduits on them began.

Weicker, a member of the Senate Watergate committee, said he has obtained other documents showing the full extent of more than 50 political investigations conducted by the White House between 1969 and 1972 by undercover political operative Anthony Ulasewicz.

Other newly uncovered documentations show "blatant," improper and perhaps illegal use of such fed- Berlin. eral agencies as the IRS to move against so-called political enemies, Weicker said.

for "national security" purposes.

Weicker did not explain why the White House would be interested in checking the tax records of Sinatra and Davis, both Nixon backers in 1972.

Ulasewicz acknowledged in sworn testimony before the Watergate committee last summer that he was the paymaster for the arrested Watergate conspirators. He also acknowledged doing intensive intelligence work on political figures for the White House. He answered affirmatively when Weicker asked him if he hadn't "dealt in dirt" or allegations of it during his investigations.

Weicker said he has documents to confirm or add these names to the list of Ulasewicz' investigaitve targets:

Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, former New York City Mayor John V. Lindsay, former Sen. George Murphy (R-Calif.); and Sens. Mark Hat-(D-Mass.), Edmund S. Muskie Weicher is scheduled to (D-Maine), William Proxmire
