G.O.P. Aide Ousted Over Report That He Got $5,000 for a Favor

By JUAN M. VASQUEZ

WASHINGTON, Aug. 6-An and sources familiar with the assistant to the co-chairman of incident, the loan was approved the Republican National Committee learned today that he ficial called the bank on behalf had been dismissed as the result of allegations that he was paid $5,000 for helping to sequence a $500,000 loan.

man for whom he had worked ton, to expedite the loan at since June 1 at a $25,000-a-year the request of Mr. Inglish, who

Press reports over the week-tant to Mr. Evans said she in-the $5,000 check and forwarded formed Mr. Inglish this morning of his dismissal.

the $5,000 check and forwarded it to Mr. Inglish for Dr. Katzen. Mr. Blair said that he had

She said that Mr. Inglish could not be reached yesterday and that he had learned of his dismissal by reading a Washington Post account in which Mr. Evans said that he was "opposed to anyone using his connection with the Republican party for an economic gain."

But Miss McManus added, "The termination is not because we believe Mr. Inglish is guilty, but because you expect total candor from your em-ployes on a matter that seems this important and serious.

Mr. Evans, she said, did not feel that Mr. Inglish was being sufficiently candid about the

According to press accounts

The aide, Douglas W. Inglish tal Service. He has said that he Jr., was dropped yesterday by made one telephone call to a bank vice president, John Stan-is a friend.

Dr. Katzen, a dentist, said end disclosed that Mr. Inglish that he was not aware of Mr. was paid $5,000 for helping a Blair's involvement in the Washington builder, Dr. Cyrus transaction. He defended the Katzen, obtain a $500,000 loan from the First National City normal and routine." He was not aware of Mr. Inglish about Bank of New York.

Neither Mr. Evans nor Mr. introduced to Mr. Inglish about Inglish could be reached for said, by Cyrus T. Anderson, a comment today, but an assis-lobbyist who allegedly signed that to Mr. Evans acid the the $5.000 check and for said the said said t "He was surprised to learn of the termination and I think he was very upset by it," said Mary Jane McManus, who spoke to Mr. Inglish by telephone.

"Gone nothing improper in making a telephone call to the bank. When informed of the payment to Mr. Inglish, he was quoted as saying, "Oh, God, what a mess." done nothing improper in mak-