8/2/73 NYT

Agnew Assures Aides Government Proceeds

WASHINGTON, July 31—Vice President Agnew assured some United States representatives abroad Tuesday that the nation's Government was being carried forward despite Watergate.

"Government is proceeding here in Washington, and new initiatives for peace are going forward," he told 55 agriculture attaches from United Embassies overseas at the Agriculture Department.

"Those of us in the executive branch of Government must continue to serve the people," he added.