HALDEMAN DENIES restrictions be lifted on breaking and entry by intelligence not been leakend by those comshowed that the papers had not A KEY ROLE IN '7

Pictures Himself as Conduit in Revoked Spying Plan

48/73 By MARJORI HUNTER Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, June 7-H. R. Haldeman told a House subcommittee today that he was merely the conduit between Nixon noted that a copy of the President Nixon and drafters of intelligence plan and "related documents" were taken from 1970 plans for expanded doly involved in preparation of those plans, nor in recommend-copy of the plan and other docing their President."

broadly as he emerged from three hours of questioning by a House Armed Services sub-turned conies of the papers over committee investigating apturned copies of the papers over parent White House efforts to the Justice Department and involve the Central Intelligence the senate's Watergate investi-Agency in covering up the gating committee.

Watergate affair. He made a brief statement,

on his testimony

Discussed by Nedzi

Later, however, Representative Lucien N. Nedzi of Michi-gan, the Democratic chairman confidentiality of sensitive Govof the subcommittee, discussed portions of the Haldeman test deplored what he termed "this timony in response to ques-

Mr. Nedzi quoted Mr. Haldeman as saying that he had not mate, he added, "seems to en-make them available for publi-tained by The New York Times and published vesterday cated that President Nixon had tended to bring a case against approved the plans in July, 1970, after being cautioned that parts were "clearly illegal" and papers case, Mr. Warren reinvolved "serious risks" to his plied: "I am not going to from Administration if the operations were ever discovered.

Mr. Nixon disclosed on May 22 of this year that he had discuss whether the White approved an intelligence plan House would seek an injunction in 1970 but had rescinded his against further publication of approval five days later because of the opposition of J.

of Investigation.

In recommending in 1970 that Services Committee said today t agencies, the Interagency Committee on Intelligence warned that "use of this technique is clearly illegal."

Despite this, the plan was approved by the President through Mr. Haldeman after Tom Charles Huston, a staff assistant to Mr. Nixon, told Mr. Haldeman: "We don't want the President linked to this thing with his signature on paper (because) all hell would break loose if this thing leaks out.'

In his may 22 statement, Mr. mestic intelligence gathering.

The former White House chief of staff was quoted as saying that he was not "direct-lived for the was dismissed on April 30 as chief White House counsel.

On May 4, Mr. Dean put a the White House by John W.

On May 4, Mr. Dean put a approval by the uments — believed to be memorandums from Mr. Huston to Mr. Haldeman was smiling Mr. Haldeman about the affair - in a safe deposit box. Later,

Deplored by Warren

A White House spokesman saying that he had fully co-operated with the committee, but firmly declined to comment by The New York papers" by The New York Times "illustrates the seeming imppssibility of maintaining the Gerald R. Warren, ty White House press secretary, climate which encourages leaks of classified materials." The cliparticipated in drafting, approving or later rescinding the 1970 intelligence-gathering plan.

> Mr. Dean, as it did against Dr. Daniel Ellsberg in the Pentagon here discuss what may happen in this matter."

Mr. Warren also refused to the Dean papers.

Meanwhile, top-ranking mem-Edgar Hoover, at that time bers of the special Senate Director of the Federal Bureau Watergate investigating combers of the special Senate mittee and of the Senate Armed mittees.

After gaveling the Watergate Committee into session this curity measures taken for the morning, Senator Sam J. Ervin, Dean papers, said the Joint Democrat of North Carolina, Committee on Atomic Energy, the President announced that he was "happy which has high security facili-taldeman after to report" that it was not his ties, permitted the Watergate committee that had made the Committee to store the papers Dean papers available to news- in a separate safe in an area papers.

'Wisdom of the Ages'

"I have a very wise man for

"In spite of his youthful ap-

Senator Ervin said that an national security."

been distrubed.

Senator Baker, discussing seprotected 24 hours a day by guards and automatic detection systems.

Senator Stuart Symington of a vice chairman of this com-mittee," the Senator said, re-the Senate Armed Services ferring to Senator Howard Committee, also said today. Baker, Republican of Tennes-that the Dean papers were not leaked from that committee.

"Some of these documents pearance, he has the wisdom are more a problem of national of the ages," Senator Ervin con-tinued, "and he suggested to national security," he said. "We me when the papers were re-hope as much of this informaceived that we deposit them in tion as possible is released to a secure place under the most the public as soon as possible, watchful security officer." the public as soon as possible, but none at the expense of but none at the expense of