Nixon Has Doubts on Haldeman

By Jack Anderson and Les Whitten

In the seclusion of San Clemente, Richard M. Nixon is beginning to question whether his slavish former staff chief, H.R. (Bob) Haldeman, always leveled with him.

The questions have come up as Nixon has tried to patch together his memoirs. Without his presidential tapes and papers to jog his memory, he has had trouble reconstructing White House events. .

He has started to question former aides to help refresh his memory. The deeper he has delved, the more he has wondered aloud whether Haldeman kept him fully informed about crucial matters.

While Nixon was President, he had a desire for solitude and a craving for an orderly environment undisturbed by trivial interruptions or internecine discord. He sought to encapsulate himself from unnecessary turmoil and to gain the information he needed by reading, not rapping.

The hard-nosed Haldeman protected him from intrusions. Nixon has now begun to question whether he was over-protected. He has dropped remarks indicating he has deep misgivings about Haldeman.

Even before Nixon began doubting Haldeman, the tight bond that once linked these two men had been broken. They have not kept in touch with one another since Watergate sent Nixon into self-exile and threatens now to send Haldeman to prison.

The former President intends to invite Haldeman to San Clemente, nevertheless, to help him recall past events for his memoirs.

Footnote: two former Nixon intimates who won't be invited to San Clemente are John D. Ehrlichman and Charles Colson. The former President has a $3.9 billion net profit. broken all contact with both mente sources.

notebook, here are more fasci- they sometimes pay no federal nies so hard-pressed that they buccaneers, the oilmen, whose ing environmental regulations, Standard of Indiana paid its profits are more fabulous than has been cited for environmen- chairman, John Searingen, a Blackbeard era:

- The world's No. 1 corporate more than triple what President been cited in antitrust cases. Ford is paid. Exxon faces antitrust charges brought by Connecticut, Florida, Kansas and the Federal Trade Commission, not to mention three air quality violations, 45 environmental violations and 53 oil discharge violations.
- The multinational, multibillion-dollar Texaco empire operates in 84 countries, with its own fleet of 205 tankers and 37,000 miles of pipeline. Last year, the company paid a scant 1.6 per cent federal tax on a $2.8 billion net profit. This means the American taxpayers indirectly helped to keep Texaco's executives in Cadillacs and their women in mink. The company is defending itself from more than 50 legal actions involving antitrust, ecology and pollution.
- · Mobil also paid a 1.6 per cent federal tax last year on an even greater $3.6 billion net profit. Founded in 1866 as Vacuum Oil, Mobil is now deep into oil shale, natural gas, coal and solar power. This company, too, is defending itself from multiple environmental, water quality and antitrust charges.

• Gulf, the oil company of the fabulous Mellon family, ran up its profits a fantastic 440 per cent during the 1972-74 period. Last year, the company paid less than a 5 per cent federal tax on men, according to our San Cle-sonal fortunes in the hundreds these taxes were far below the illegal political contributions.

Some of the Mellons, with per-

- Standard Oil of California lected $410,000. power is Exxon, the super-cor- by no means limits its operaporation, whose $10.9 billion tions to California. It is active in
 - Only two of the Big Eight tioning. Last year, Standard Oil 676 per cent since 1972 . . . Getty tax on a $1.7 billion net income. and art collector J. Paul Getty, Shell paid a 28.6 per cent tax on has scored a 245 per cent profit of millions, have managed to 49 per cent standard corporate Oil Buccaneers—From our oil juggle their finances so that tax. Nor were the two companating facts about those modern income taxes at all. Gulf is fight- had to deprive their executives. the pirate treasures of the tal violations and is involved in $476,000 salary last year; Shell's president Harry Bridges col-

Additional oil notes:

Conoco, with $7 billion in oil profit last year exceeded the an- no less than 35 foreign coun- sales last year, is also the nanual budgets of most nations. Its tries, and is also building a tion's biggest seller of bitumicorporate ruler, J. Kenneth Ja- large tanker fleet. In 1973, the nous coal . . . Phillips, once run mieson, is little known outside company was slapped on the by an American Indian, now opof the world's boardrooms. Yet wrist for monopoly practices in erates in 16 countries and is inhis $677,000 annual salary is American Samoa. It has also volved in the North Sea explorations ... Amerada Hess, a family firm run by Leon Hess, has pay federal taxes worth men-boosted its profits an incredible of Indiana paid an 18.2 per cent Oil, owned by the aged playboy a $903 million income. Yet even increase since 1972.