Cubans Aren't Bitter Over Watergate

By Jack Anderson

the crime that has rocked the nation have written some poignant letters from prison.

Although they were recruited to do the dirty work and then were abandoned behind bars, their letters aren't bitter.

"All things considered," wrote Bernard Barker to his daughter, Maria Elena Moffett, "we are all pretty damn lucky people."

Another Watergate prisoner, Frank Sturgis, wrote to his wife Janet: "I've been thinking of you constantly and dream of you always. Keep your chin up baby. Things will somehow work out."

The letters were shown to us by friends of the four. Although tant to let the world read their problems." personal sentiments, they gave us permission to quote from the letters.

Barker, for instance, called upon Watergate ringleader E. impression that the Watergate see us again," wrote Sturgis. break-in and the earlier Los

The four Cubans who were wrote to his daughter and her knowledge that your family will not to influence anyone. That caught inside the Watergate in husband: "If you are lucky and be taken care of. wise, you will be of those selected few that will know real that, but our chief was Howard and or Buckley really said!!" happiness in life. Your mother (Hunt)—ex-CIA official and Reached for comment, Buckley and I have it, and you two have White House aide. We thought frankly admitted he was a it now and should have it more it was gov. operation and it may "deep cover agent" for the CIA than us because you don't ar-still be one." gue the way we do."

> his daughter in Spanish: "I cho (Barker) and thinks Macho what his CIA role was. have always been proud of you, is holding back, "related Sturbut now I walk around with a gis. "We three do not know if special smile on my lips since that is so but the Sen. has an now it also includes your hus-lidea that he may know someband..."

He concluded the letter with this rueful apology: "Well, my tify on Aug. 16. Reported Sturlove, receive all the love from gis to his wife: "Howard has not your problematic progenitor, a returned as yet. Everybody relic of a problematic genera-thinks he is talking his butt off. tion that has been unable to If he is, he can only help us and give more than what it has and not hurt us." Barker and Sturgis were reluc-that can only distribute its wife about a visit from Sen. Lo- love you always." one of the Senate Watergate fascinating reference was to committee members, "I think columnist William Buckley. "I Howard Hunt inside the White he wants to help us somehow. I don't know if I told you before," House and came away with the hope so! He may come back to Sturgis wrote to his wife, "but Angeles burglary were na- Sturgis told his wife, how "the he still does. When he found out tional security assignments. Af- CIA trains men to infiltrate in- that Howard (Hunt) was going terwards, the Cubans wound up dustries past their security to work in the White House, he in prison while those who plot- guard and if caught, say noth- told Howard it was good that he Again on Aug. 24, he wrote to three of us took orders from Ma- them since. He declined to say thing on that order."

Hunt was taken away to tes-

But Sturgis wound up cheerfully: "We still may win Sturgis wrote hopefully to his this yet. Keep the faith, honey! I well P. Weicker Jr. (R.-Conn.), Footnote: Perhaps the most William F. Buckley used to He explained to the Senator, work for CIA and I don't know if ted the Watergate crimes re-ing because someone will make could be so close to the Presi-mained free. contact and bail us out and if tent but Howard told him that

Yet on Father's Day, Barker anything happens, it is common he was there to take orders and was a good answer! I'm not "No one spoke to us about clear whether this is what Howfrom July, 1951 to March, 1952, The Senator "feels that the but said he had not worked for