P. ...I feel for those poor guys in jail, particularly for Hunt, with his wife dead,

D. Well, there is every indication they are hanging in tough right now.

P. What the hell do they expect thought? Do they expect clemency in a ~~year~~, in reasonable time? What would you advise on that?...You couldn't do it, ~~ix~~ say/six months.

Of clear, while talking about reading a book on JFK, to Dean, 2/28/73 B 87

On Hunt, 114 Dean said "and they still tried to ~~skxxx~~ move to ~~skxxx~~ have him severed from the trial. And Hunt did not try to cause a lot of Problems. Bittman was cooperative., whereas Liddy played the heavy at the trial." Sirica, he said, "like Hunt - he thought Hunt was being open with him and being candid [when he] gave a statement in open court that he didn't know any higher ups..." p.113

P to Dean Bantan 146 "As a matter of fact, there was a discussion with somebody about Hunt's ~~problem~~ on account of his wife, and I said of course commutation could be considered on the basis of his wife's death."

P to Dean 148 "Your major huy to keep under control is Hunt...Does he know a lot? ...Jyst looking at the immediate problem, don't you think you have to handle Un^d Hunt's financial problem damned soon?...It seems to me we have to keep the cap on the bottle that much, or we don't have any options...Eith that or it blows right now. clemency 135

~~"P. What is the naswer ^{on} to this? How you keep it out. I don't know. You can't keep it out if Hunt talks."~~ 163

H. "But we don't know about Hunt. Maybe Hunt has that tied into Colson. We don't know that though, really.

~~P. ^{ix} "I tjink Hunt knows a hell of a lot more."~~

D "I do, too..." 164-5
