Warrant in Raid on Democrats Is Expected for Missing Figure

NYTimes

By ROBERT M. SMITH JUL Special to The New York Times

ernment officials expect a war- look after her two childern after rant to be issued by Wednesday Mr. Hunt telephoned her in Eu-For the arrest of E. Howard Hunt Jr. as a material witness in connection with last month's raid on the Democratic National Committee Despite what one Govern- to have seen her husband since ment official called "the most her return." intensive application of re-sources" last week by the Fed-Hunt's employment at the earlier that F.B.I. agents had husband. twice sought to interview Mr.

Intelligence Agency.

Friends of his wife, Dorothy, said that F.B.I. agents interrector of the F.B.I., declined in viewed her last Wednesday at their suburban home in Mary.

impression that the Federal agents were not looking for him at that time and that the watergate Office Building.

He said, however, that the said, however, that the said however, that the

Mrs. Hunt's friends also said that she was mystified about reports that the bureau had problems in finding him. They said she knew her husband's whereabouts but would not divulge them.

They said that he was reading not only the summaries presaid she knew her husband's whereabouts but would not divulge them.

that another reason for her for the White House in 1971.

WASHINGTON, July 3-Gov-learly return was the need to raid. Mrs. Hunt is not believed eral Bureau of Investigation, Spanish Embassy was formally Mr. Hunt has not been found terminated today because of Government sources reported the publicity surrounding her twice sought to interview Mr. Hunt but that he had declined to answer their questions.

Mr. Hunt was reliably reported to have fled to Europe and possibly to be in Spain. He is a former official of the Central former official of the Central ment now believes he may have to offer.

their suburban home in Mary-ment on the progress of the But they relayed Mrs. Hunt's bureau's investigation of the appression that the Federal June 17 break-in at the Demo-

interview concerned mostly her professional and personal activities

He said, nowever, and bureaus investigation was being conducted on "a 24-hour basis" Mrs. Hunt's friends also said and that it was being treated

They said that Mrs. Hunt had returned to her job at the Span-investigation had been wide-ish Embassy on June 26 and June 19 an ish Embassy on June 26, and ranging. Government sources not on June 20 as The New reported that bureau agents York Times reported this mornhad interviewed some people in ing Embassy officials said yesterday she had returned ahead of time from a European vacation because of bad weather in Europe.

The New reported that oursel agenus had interviewed some people in the White House, including
the White House, including
counsel to the President Mr.
Colson recommended Mr. Hunt,
Europe. But her friends said today 1970, as a part-time consultant

5 4 WZ.