

99

~~Gray burned what incriminated Hunt and the White House in 66 still other uncharged crimes. 66
66 65A~~

~~Watergate evidence, incriminating to the White House. The true nature of some of what~~ recounted

as The Watergate meanings emerge. A

Gray destroyed and that of which it was part will here be discussed for the first time as the story develops. If it is true, as it is true, that Gray's predecessor as FBI chief, J. Edgar Hoover, was responsible for the destruction of evidence - and my investigations into the assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy proved this -

Evidence and misrepresented

Hoover

he did not, personally, destroy that evidence. It was destroyed because had it not been disclosed,

demolished

and had it been made available, the purpose of ~~one~~ of my suits, it would have destroyed

*66A
HA*

the official "solution" ~~that~~ that crime, properly called "the crime of the century." 66A here

In a system of law-enforcement and of justice that through the years has often enough been tainted by official corruption, financial as well as political, Gray's ~~crime is~~ and what is in on - masked in it are without precedent. Richard Nixon was its inspiration and its beneficiary. Gray so attested.

66A

(One Suit)

this

~~This~~ case, which will be precedent under the new law, is on its way to the Supreme Court.)