Sirica Orders Trial Must Start Sept. 9

By William Chapman Washington Post Staff Writer

U. S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica yesterday rejected requests to delay the Watergate cover-up conspiracy trial and ordered it to begin on Sept. 9 as scheduled.

He overruled the strenuous objections of defense lawyers who insisted that they lacked time to prepare their case and who claimed that recent publicity about President Nixon's resignation Aug. 9 would preiudice a jury against Mr. Nixon's former aides.

"There is no better time to try this case than the present time," Sirica told the lawyers. "This case will be called to trial at 9:30 a.m. on Sept. 9."

Andrew C. Hall, the attorney for former White House aide John D. Ehrlichman, Supreme Court. promptly announced he would appeal the ruling.

The delay had been sought by Hall and attorneys for three other defendants with William Hundley, lawyer for former Attorney General John N. Mitchell, proposing that it start early in 1975.

Even the Watergate special prosecutors had urged "reasonable" continuan a continuance, agreeing with the defendants that they might not have time to assimilate into their defense the new tape recordings

JUDGE JOHN J. SIRICA ... ruling is appealed made available by order of the Sirica overruled both sides. He said that the first evidence involving tape recordings might not be introduced until two weeks or more after the trial is under way and suggested that the large law firms employed to handle the cases of the six defendants could arrange to deal with the tapes in time.

One objection to a September starting date was the possibility that the case might

See SIRICA, A12, Col. 1

SIRICA, From A1

last until Christmas, requiring ignation would inevitably prejjurors to be sequestered during the holidays.

avoid that and indicated he the House impeachment hearmay order longer daily ses- ings and resignation to fade. sions-ending as late as 6 p.m. -to speed up the trial. "So, White House chief of staff all of you get ready for a long H.R. Haldeman, John J. Wilsession," he said.

ants' lawyers had contended publicity about his client as a

120

that the blizzard of publicity accompanying Mr. Nixon's resudice their clients' cases. They said a 4-month delay would al-Sirica said he hoped to low time for the memories of

The lawyer for former son, claimed that the case is Several of the six defend- now "deluged" with adverse resignation episodes. He said fraud and conspiracy. he had counted Haldeman's "That was peanuts com-name "hundreds of times" in pared to this," retorted Wilhe had counted Haldeman's Newsweek magazines.

we can't get a fair trial" if it in the next three months." starts now, Wilson declared.

Sirica observed there had result of the impeachment and tempted income tax evasion, recent issues of Time and son. "Just a small little peanut. You are not giving us a "I can say unqualifiedly that fair trial if you put us to trial

But Sirica asserted that the defendants got a "good break" been heavy publicity when in the case because publicity Robert G. (Bobby) Baker, the has diminished since Mr. former Senate aide to Lyndon Nixon resigned and the im-B. Johnson, was tried for at- peachment floor debates were averted.

"If you pick up The Washington Post you hardly see it [Watergate] on the front page any more," the judge said.

The judge, who has presided over some type of Watergate litigation for two years, also said, "I want to see the end of this case sometime."

Sirica said that despite past publicity the trial of Haldeman, Ehrlichman Mitchell and three others "is not the type of case that arouses the passions and hatreds of average persons." The other three defendants are former Assistant Attorney General Robert C. Mardian, campaign lawyer Kenneth W. Parkinson, and former White House aide Gordon Strachan.

Several lawyers argued that no prospective juror could be expected to have no opinion about such celebrated individuals of recent history.

But Sirica said he could not accept the idea that any juror who promised to be objective was lying.

James Neal, who will direct the prosecution, declined to argue the publicity issue but agreed that coping with the new tapes and verifying transcripts would be an "enormous problem" for the defense.

Meanwhile, a subpoena ordering Mr. Nixon to appear on Sept. 9 to testify in Ehrlichman's behalf was received yesterday in Los Angeles by U.S. Marshal Gaylord Campbell.

Campbell said yesterday he would serve the subpoena personally on Mr. Nixon at his San Clemente estate "within a reasonable time possibly today."