Denied Files, Ehrlichman Says

By William Chapman Washington Post Staff Writer

Attorneys for John D. Ehrlichman told the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals yesterday that the former presidential aide has been denied access to his files in the White House.

They presented that complaint as one reason why the trial of Ehrlichman and five other charged in the Watercover-up conspiracy should be postponed.

A petition filed with the court yesterday said that President Ford's legal counsel, Philip W. Buchen, said Ehrlichman "is not permitted to examine his papers at this time, although he may be permitted to examine them at some future. date."

His attorney, Andrew C. cluded a "substantial number" memoranda.

During the "plumbers" trial, Ehrlichman fendants appealed. was at first denied access to out taking notes.

A White House spokesman said yesterday that Buchen is reassessing the whole question be warranted because of the firmed here yesterday that the former aides who are now defendants.

Buchen is expected to announce a new policy governing the documents in a few days, the spokesman said.

Ehrlichman and three other defendants have asked the Court of Appeals to order U.S. District Court Judge John J. Sirica to delay the cover-up trial, which is supposed to get unspecified under way Sept. 9.

They have said that the wave of publicity accompany-Hall, said the material Ehrl- ing President Nixon's resignaichman hoped to examine in tion would prejudice a jury se- ecutors said. lected in September and argued that they needed more former White House chief of nated by the former Presiorder to prepare a defense in- lected in September and ar-

recent Monday and four of the six de-| Mitchell, and former Assistant his notes left in the White ecutors yesterday supported House but ultimately was all the request for a delay, as dants, former White House lowed to examine them with they had done before. But for aide Gordon Strachan and reprosecutors told the Court of Kenneth W. Parkinson, has Appeals, as the defendants sought a postponement. had, that a delayed trial might problem of juror bias. Previ- service of a subpoena on forously, the prosecution had mer President Nixon had been supported the motion to postpone the trial merely on Wayne Colburn, director of grounds that more time was the U.S. Marshal Service. needed for preparation.

> nature of the present case, it that the subpoena should be would not be unwarranted for served on Mr. Nixon, now in the trial of this case to be de- California, in a "professional layed for a significant but lim- and discreet" manner. ited period of time to insure that potential jurors are in a Angeles Monday but had not position to state candidly been served by late yesterday whether they can lay aside afternoon. The U.S. marshal in any preconceptions they may Los Angeles was understood to have ...," the Watergate pros- be arranging for its being of notes, correspondence, and time to prepare their case. Sir- staff H. R. Haldeman, former dent's staff to handle subpoeica rejected their motions Attorney General John N. nas.

Attorney General Robert C. The Watergate special pros- Mardian have sought a delay. Neither of the other two defethe first time yesterday the election campaign attorney delayed at the instruction of

It was Colburn, a spokes-"Because of the exceptional man said, who gave orders

The subpoena arrived in Los served with a lawyer, Darvl V.