Administration and head of the bers and Watergate cover-up special White House investigative unit known as the "plumbers," was convicted of the charge last summer.

Judge Gerhard A. Gesell of Federal District Court had expressed doubts about the constitutionality of the law covering the alleged offense. But he perm¶tted the case to go to the jury, which convicted Mr. Ehrlichman.

Judge Gesell said the law was questionable because the defendants were prosecuted on the basis of summaries that F.B.I. agents had written from notes after their interviews.

Later Judge Gesell dismissed that part of Mr. Ehrlichman's conviction, and the special prosecutio nappealed.

Mr. Ehrlichman was also convicted of conspiracy in connec-On a Lying Charge tion with a burglary at the office of a West Coast psychiatrist who had treated Dr. Daniel WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (UPI)
