Ehrlichman Plans to Aid Indians As 'Penance' During His Appeal

WASHINGTON, Feb. (UPI)-John D. Ehrlichman, the and John N. Mitchell, for conconvicted Watergate conspira- spiracy, obstruction of justice tor, will do "personal penance" vestigators. by living on an Indian reserva- While Mr. Ehrlichman is on tion in New Mexico even the reservation, his appeal though Federal Judge John J. process will be under way. The Sirica rejected such alternative appeal could drag on for up to service to a jail term.

Ira Lowe, an attorney Mr. Ehrlichman hired recently to Enriconman nired recently to represent him in yesterday's sentencing procedures for the Watergate cover-up, confirmed that Mr. Ehrlichman intended reiving legal assistance to eight bring to support line of alleged "spying" on giving legal assistance to eight private lives of persons on the Pueblo tribes as outlined to Nixon Administration's enemies Judge Sirica.

vinced he can do a "good deed replied their client would testify for a bad" by using his exper-tise in land-use law to aid the himself was reportedly on the 6,000 Indians.

He said Mr. Ehrlichman had would testify on an unspecified hoped Judge Sirica would ac- date in March. cept his offer to serve out his According to newspaper resentence on the reservation ports, Mr. Dean met with since the "usefulness of that Thomas Lopez in 1971, 1972 or would be so much better than 1973 in Miami. Mr. Lopez was in a prison cell." Judge Sirica head of a special intelligencerefused and sentenced him to gathering unit in the Internal from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 years in prison, Revenue Service in Miami.

22 as he did to H. R. Haldeman

two years.

Dean Will Testify

list. Richard Gerstein, Dade Living on a reservation "is County state attorney, said a no easy life," Mr. Lowe said, subpoena had been issued for Mr. Ehrlichman is con-Mr. Dean and that his attorneys enemies list, said Mr. Dean