

Rebels' Order to Kill Leaders

Santiago, Chile

The underground Revolutionary Left Movement yesterday condemned to death its two top leaders — one of them a nephew of the late Marxist President Salvador Allende — and ordered "its militants and . . . revolutionaries of the entire world, to execute the sentences, whenever and where they can."

In a declaration sent from hiding to local newspapers and foreign news agencies, the Central Committee of MIR, as it is known from its Spanish initials, said that Andres Pascal Allende, 32, the leader of the organization, and his principal aide, Nelson Gutierrez, 31, violated standing orders when they sought asylum in two Santiago diplomatic missions with their woman companions November 7.

The declaration said both men were expelled from the MIR "for life" and charged with "treason against the party, the working class and the people and also desertion and cowardice."
