

Perjury Trial In Kennedy 'Conspiracy'

4-15-67
New Orleans

A 24-year-old music student pleaded not guilty yesterday to perjury charges in District Attorney Jim Garrison's probe of the Kennedy assassination.

District Judge Oliver P. Schuingkamp granted Layton Martens' request for a jury trial.

Martens is a former roommate of the late David W. Ferrie, the mysterious pilot Garrison says conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy.

United Press