Captain ROBERT KENNETH BROWN, The School Brigade, Fort Benning, Georgia, advised that he has been active in Cuban matters for several years and during the Spring of 1963, in connection with anti-Castro activity, he was in contact with the National States Rights Party in Los Angeles, California.

In connection with this, he contacted Dr. STANLEY L. DRENNAN at 100 Edervie Drive, North Hollywood, California, who was a member in the National States Rights Party. BROWN stated that once while a guest in Dr. DRENNAN's home, he mentioned in general conversation that he could help him get rid of KENNEDY, the Cabinet and members of Americans for Democratic Action and maybe other people. BROWN stated that he considered the idea "a good crackpot." However, as DRENNAN continued his conversation, he gained the impression that DRENNAN was seriously propositioning him on this matter.

BROWN stated that he is a Reserve Officer and free lance writer and has been to Cuba several times. He stated that up until 1960, he was pro-Castro. He stated that he dictated his conversation with DRENNAN to STEVE JONES, a free lance writer, Miami, Florida.

DRENNAN stated that he was again in contact with DRENNAN in the Summer of 1963 and DRENNAN revealed he had been approached by the Secret Service concerning his recent activities.
