Garrison Blasts Action by Federal Court

By CLARENCE DOUCET

District Attorney Jim Garrison Wednesday released a photograph of Lee Harvey Oswald in a Civil Air Patrol uniform, a photograph he claimed the federal government "tried to pick up" and suppress.

Garrison circulated copies of the photograph during a press conference in his office at which time he asserted there is no legal basis for the federal courts to prevent him from bringing Clay L. Shaw to trial.

Shaw has been charged by Garrison with participation in a conspiracy to murder President John F. Kennedy.

Garrison called the temporary restraining order of U.S. District Judge Frederick J. R. Heebe, preventing him from trying Shaw, "an outrageous and unprecedented interference by the federal government with the legal processes of the state of Louisiana."

LITTLE KNOWN BOOK

Referring to the photograph of Oswald, Garrison said it was contained in a little known book written shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy. He speculated that it was proba few days after news of Garrison's investigation into the assassination was made public.

Shaw was arrested on March 1, 1967, and after several legal delays Garrison's office finally set the trial for June 11. Shaw recently went to the federal court here asking that Garrison be enjoined from bringing him to trial.

TAKING DEPOSITIONS

Judge Heebe issued the temporary restraining order on Tuesday, and on Wednesday he signed an order allowing attorneys for Shaw to take depositions from the following persons:

—Assistant Dist. Atty. James L. Alecock and Anthony Sciana.

—Dr. Esmond Patler, who administered truth serum to Perry Raymond Russo, one of Garrison's main witnesses against Shaw.

—Lynn Loisel and Louis Ivon, investigators for Garrison.

—Sandra Moffitt, Des Moines, Iowa, a former friend of Russo who has refused to come to New Orleans to testify.

TWO REASONS

Asserting that his office has received "an excessive amount of trouble from the federal government from the beginning of his probe, Garrison said there are two primary reasons why the federal courts should not prevent him from trying Shaw.

—"The federal court has no legal justifications whatever for interrupting the scheduled trial at this time."

—"The federal government is a party with special interests in this case."

The DA added: "Our investigation has shown that the fed-

Referring to Shaw's going to the federal court, Garrison asked:

"Why is there such a sudden loss of confidence in the jury system, and why is there the urgent necessity for the federal government to interpose itself between the accused and the prosecution?"

The DA added: "Our investigation has shown that the federal investigator was linked and involved in a Commission inquiry to conduct the trial of the assassin of President Kennedy. He was a well known and well respected member of the community."

He continued: "The federal government has been interfering with any honest inquiry in every conceivable way—from the threatening of witnesses at the outset to the monitoring of telephones to the use of a constant barrage of propaganda through national media in an attempt to discredit the inquiry."

INTERFERENCE CHARGED

Garrison alleged that the federal government has been interfering "with any honest inquiry in every conceivable way—from the threatening of witnesses at the outset to the monitoring of telephones to the use of a constant barrage of propaganda through national media in an attempt to discredit the inquiry."

He continued:

"In contradiction, we have made no critical or derogatory statements concerning Mr. Shaw. From the time he was charged, my office has been fair to him and none of his rights have been violated even incidentally. The members of my office has refused to mention his name publicly. Just where is the 'reign of terror' which is supposed to justify this federal intervention?"

Garrison also said that if his case against Shaw is as fraudulent as his attorneys claim, "why not let him go to trial and be acquitted?"

The DA said his office has never had a case reversed "because we used improper methods" and he said the federal government is more interested in "power, not truth and justice."

Garrison said he has "no idea what kind of circus the federal government has in mind" and he added: "I don't think there is anything the federal government will not do to keep the lid on the grave."

ably given to a member of the federal government. What it has done is to copy the information presented in the book. Garrison said he obtained a copy of which he is apparently quite proud.

The Warren Commission Garrison had already mentioned that Oswald was briefly a member of the U.S. Air Force. Garrison said that in 1959 he joined the CAP and was initiated into the group by intelligence agent James Ferris, said to have received information from the Garrison investigation of the Kennedy assassination.

Garrison also said that the picture which he said Oswald carried in his pocket was a photograph of a man whose name or name of the man is not identical to Oswald's individuals in the area.

LINK WITH FERRIS

The district attorney said the photograph of Oswald in the form was probably taken sometime between 1955 and 1957 and links him with Ferris, who was a CAP leader and a well-known, liberally famous adventurer in the CIA.

"Whether Oswald was in the New Orleans squadron of the Moisant Squadron is unimportant," Garrison said, "because the two groups met together."

Garrison claims that Shaw, Oswald and Ferris conspired to assassinate Kennedy and made their plans at a meeting here in Ferris's apartment in 1963. Shaw has denied knowing either Oswald or Ferris.
