By Garrison Grand Jury

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 21 (AP)—A Tacoma, Wash., radio commentator testified before the Orleans Parish County grand jury here Thursday in connection with District Attorney Jim Garrison's continuing investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Fred Lee Crisman, 47 years old, told newsmen before he testified that he had no idea why Mr. Garrison had subpoenaed him and that he had nothing he could tell Mr. Garrison concerning the case.

Mr. Crisman, who appeared at the hearing with his attorney, Robert Griffin, also of Tacoma, said he knew none of the figures in Mr. Garrison's investigation.
