ulv Shaw Trial Byt 400

MAN ORLEANS AP - Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has asked for an indefinite delay of the trial or Clay L. Shaw. 55. Charged with conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to murder President John F. Kennedy. The trial was scheduled to start Tuesday.

Gerrison claims that federal secrecy has crippled his case. Asst. Dist. Atty. James L. Alcock filed a motion for postponement Friday with Criminal District Codriguage Edward A. Haggerty Jr. A hearing was set for

The motion marked an abrupt reversal by the prosecution. A Lew weeks ago, Carrison said only his death could ston

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried

a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried

a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried

a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried

a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's statement in announcing the new motion carried

a strong hint that the Shaw case might never reach the courtroom.

Alcock's action opposed by the defense came shortly after a Washington hearing in which Court of General Sessions

Junge Charles Halleck rejected Carrison's subpoena of autopsy photographs and Krays of Rennedy.

Hallack told New Orleans Asst. Dist. Attyl N. V. Bertel

Jr. that he would have to show that the autopsy records are necessary to the case and that "this is something more than a necessary to the case and that "this is something moto first fishing expedition."

Saying he wanted to be sure Garrison was not simply trying to "obtain what surely must be sensational photographs."

Halleck lave Bertel two weeks to produce evidence.

Garrison contends that Kennedy, slain in Dallas in 1967, was the victim of a conspiracy. The Warren Commission report said it found no evidence of a conspiracy. It said Oswald, acting alone and for reasons unknown, hilled the President with rifle shots fired from a window as the presidential car

The conspiracy case contends that Kermedy was fired upon from at least two directions and that the autopsy material would prove it.

The autopay protographs and Krays were placed in the National Archives by the Kennedy family, with the stipulation that they not be made public.

In seeking delay of the trial of Shaw, a retired businessman, alcock asked that it be postponed until Carrison's Office receives 'all of the evidence called for in our subpoenas, of the evidence used in the autoper report and all other evidence

In the event the federal government does not honor our subnomas and blocks our attempts to present all the evidence, this case cannot be brought to trial, ' he added.

Alcock oriticised U.S. Atby. Gon. Ramsey Clark for research Thursday might a report by a panel of four medical experts who checked the autopsy materials and backed up the Warren Commission.

The panel report covered "only a small portion of the evidence and only that which lavors the defense and the Warren report." Alcock Baid. CS-DM21Caes Jan 18