SHAW TRIAL 2ND NL 250

By DON MCKEE

Associated Press Writer

NEW ORLEANS AP - Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's top aide disclosed Wednesday he plans to push his fight for secret autopsy data on President Kennedy for the trial of Clay L. Shaw, charged with conspiring to kill Kennedy.

The decision is "pretty firm," chief prosecutor James L. Alcock said in answer to questions after court adjourned for the day with the 11th juror chosen for Shaw's trial.

A judge in Washington has set a Friday deadline for the state to put up evidence supporting its claim that the autopsy reports, photographs and x-rays are necessary for the trial.

Garrison's subpoena of the records was rejected Jan. 17 by Judge Charles Halleck of General Sessions Court in Washington. The judge said Garrison would have to back up his contention that shots were fired from more than one direction when Kennedy was killed five years ago.

The records were placed in the National Archives in 1966 by the Kennedy family with the stipulation they not be made public for five years.

Before the hearing, the Justice Department released a secret report by a panel of medical experts who supported the Warren Commission's conclusion that Kennedy was shot twice from behind.

Wednesday's proceedings in New Orleans produced juror No. 11, David I. Powe, 28, unit manager for a credit corporation. His selection left only one juror and two alternates to be agreed upon.

"The only opinion I have is that I don't know," POWE REPLIED WHEN ASKED IF HE HAD AN OPINION AS TO Shaw's innocence or guilt.

A grand jury indictment charges that Shaw conspired with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to assassinate Kennedy.

SHAW TRIAL NL 250

By DON MCKEE

NEW ORLEANS AP - An 11th juror was seated in the Clay L. Shaw conspiracy trial Wednesday, leaving only one empty slot in the jury box and moving the case closer to the stage where first testimony will be offered.

The latest juror accepted was David I. Powe, 28, a unit manager for a credit corporation. He was selected after questioning had eliminated more than 75 prospective jurors earlier in the day.

"The only opinion I have is that I don't know," Powe replied when asked his view of Shaw's guilt or innocence.

It appeared that completion of the jury might come Thursday since the prosecution and the defense had only one peremptory challenge apiece out of their original 12. When the last peremptory challenges are used, jurors cannot be rejected without legal reason or mutual consent.

Ten jurors were selected in the first seven days.

Another juror and two alternates must be seated before Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison starts trying to prove Shaw plotted with Lee Harvey Oswald and others to murder President John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Garrison, in subpoenaing witnesses, has indicated anew he will try to link Shaw, 55, to the assassination of Kennedy Nov. 22, 1963, in Dallas.

A commission headed by Chief Justice Earl Warren concluded that Oswald acting alone shot Kennedy. The commission found no credible evidence of a conspiracy.

Among witnesses summoned by Garrison are former Texas Gov. and Mrs. John B. Connally, occupants of the presidential limousine when Kennedy was shot. Connally was wounded seriously.

Connally said Tuesday he would not appear voluntarily at the trial but would have to respond to issued for his appearance.
