

In and About Town

BY Maud O'Bryan

THE SHOE TREE SPROUTS A METAIRIE BRANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Norris Watsky have made such a success of The Shoe Tree at 8120 Hampson that it's sprouting. The new Shoe Tree is at 5050 West Esplanade, Metairie, opening today.

"Come see our antiques," invites Mrs. Watsky. "We have an old wind-up phonograph, an old icebox to keep our stockings, hall tree for shoe trees, wagon wheel, old-time secretary for a desk, wall paper in yellow and orange florals to match our bags. Our motto is "Ladies Shoes for the Young in Heart," and we feature Patino, Sbicca of California, La Puima, Old Maine Trotters, Spaulding Loafers."

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT TRADE FAIR SATURDAY

Seventy-six Junior Achievement companies will present their wares in booth exhibits and sales Saturday and Sunday at Lakeside Shopping Center, announce Ferd Lorio, Ernest Posey and John Keenan.

Some 1500 achievers from 41 high schools will participate, adds John A. Maggiore, executive director of Junior Achievement.

"There will be awards for the best booth and for nine 'Gold Award' booths," Maggiore says. "For the first time, customers will be able to purchase J. A. articles on their BankAmericards. The fair will open at 10 a.m. Saturday, closing at 7 p.m., reopening Sunday from noon until 5 p.m. There is no admission charge and there will be many free prizes."

$1300 FOR A RECIPE IN LOUISIANA COOK-OFF

Entries for the Frey Louisiana Cook-Off close Saturday March 15 at midnight, so hurry and mail yours to Box 1000, New Orleans 70150. No prize money. Frey products is available at all Frey's. You might find them at your favorite grocery store. (If you don't know where to go, call Frey's at 888-8619.)

FASHION SEWING IN FOUR-DAY COURSE

Lucille Rivers will give four different lectures on fashion sewing at Krauss Co. Monday through Thursday, March 17-20, mornings from 10 to noon and on Thursday from 2 to 4 p. m. also.

You may ask for free tickets in the store's first floor fabric department, to learn how to make clothes with the couturier look, and how to sew with assurance, flawless ease, while having fun too.

Miss Rivers is a widely known author and lecturer on fashion sewing, sponsored by Carltex, William Ewart & Sons, Pellon, Stehli, and Talon Zippers.

FREE BOATING CLASS

Mike Spear, 888-8619, can tell you all about the free boating class open to all men, women and youths at least 16 years old, to be given by the Jefferson division of New Orleans Power Squadron. You don't have to own a boat to participate. Registration is March 19, 7:30 p.m., in Airline Park Playground Gym, 6716 W. Metairie ave. for 10 to 12 free weekly lectures on safety, seamanship, aids to navigation, piloting, mariner's compass, etc.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD ON RECORDS

Record shops, department stores and college bookstores are featuring a new record album, "Oswald: Self Portrait in Red," announces Dr. Alton Ochsner of The Information Council of the Americas.

The disc features Lee Harvey Oswald's own words in a radio debate between Ed Butler and himself just 93 days before the assassination of President Kennedy. According to Dr. Ochsner, the record reveals Oswald as a dedicated Marxist, and the album will be distributed nationally.

THUMBS TURN GREEN THIS SATURDAY

Spring arrives — officially March 21, but will arrive prematurely at 10 a.m. Saturday, when their green thumbs turn green. A Spring Festival will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 21. Tickets are $1.50.