

—States-Item photo.
DISTRICT ATTORNEY JIM GARRISON, right, stands beside Criminal Court JUDGE BERNARD BAGERT, who administered the oath to the DA for an unprecedented third term.

SWEARING-IN CEREMONIES

DA, 3 Other Officials Take Office

Criminal Court Judge Bernard Bagert today presided over ceremonies in which four elected parish officials were sworn in on the first day of the city's new administration.

The packed courtroom saw District Attorney Jim Garrison sworn in for an unprecedented third term. Criminal Sheriff Louis A. Heyd Jr., also began a new term. Criminal District Court Clerk Dan Haggerty and Coroner Carl Rabin began their first full four-year terms.

GARRISON SAID after taking the oath of office, that he would continue to serve for the next four years, "as I have for the past eight."

He said he was convinced that his office did not bring anybody to trial that wasn't thought to be guilty.

On his famous probe into the assassination of President Kennedy, Garrison said someday everyone will know that the murder plot was planned in New Orleans.

HE ADDED THAT there will come a time when the whole world will know that the U.S. government was "involved in that murder."

In his response Heyd said he would continue to try to make the sheriff's office an efficient one but he said the sheriff's department would not be in good shape until a new Parish Prison is built.

Dr. Rabin was first appointed to the post to succeed the late Dr. Nicholas P. Chetta and Haggerty took the office after the death of his father, Edward A. Haggerty Sr.