Police Look for Link to RFK Murder In 3 Held in 'Death Plot' on Nixon

men and his two sons, who shared a shabby, three-room Brooklyn flat, were jailed today under $100,000 bond each, charged with plotting to kill President-elect Richard Nixon.

Police and Secret Service agents were investigating the possibility of a link between the alleged plot against Nixon and the murder or Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, killed in Los Angeles in June.

FOURTH MAN

The charge of solicitation against the three reportedly stemmed from their efforts to enlist the aid of another man in the plot.

The fourth man, who police are holding in protective custody and whom they have declined to identify, informed police in an anonymous phone call Friday night of the alleged plot.

Police traced the call to a bar, found the man who made it still there, and questioned him before raiding the Namer apartment.

In the apartment, police found an M1 rifle and an M1 carbine, 24 rounds of ammunition and two switchblade knives, as well as letters from relatives and from persons authorities described as "contacts" in Arab coun-
