

MRS. MITCHELL SAID TO HAVE F.B.I. GUARD

President Nixon has ordered Federal Bureau of Investigation protection for Mrs. John N. Mitchell, wife of the Attorney General, but she believes that the families of Cabinet members would be safer living in a protected compound, it was reported yesterday.

In an interview with Mrs. Mitchell, published in the current issue of Look magazine, she is quoted as saying that the protected homes should be situated on the grounds of the National Arboretum, a large botanical garden in Washington.

"They have so many acres, they could spare some," she said.

The article, according to United Press International, said that Mr. Nixon had ordered protection for Mrs. Mitchell and her 9-year-old daughter, Martha Jr., because "she receives threats so frightening" that even the daughter sometimes reminds her: "You know I can't go out alone. I might be kidnapped."

The article said that Mrs. Mitchell hated "this miserable war" and was once so opposed to it she was "ready to get out and march with anyone" and advised friends with draftable sons to send them to Canada.
