Nixon Reported Planning Major Changes in Cabinet

Hickel, Kennedy and Hardin Expected to Depart by January—A Reshuffling of White House Staff Also Foreseen

By WARNER WEAVER NOV 1 9 1970 Special to The New York Times

President Nixon was reported sidered blunt in view of the today to be planning a major fact that Mr. Hickel is a subordreshuffling of his Cabinet and inate serving at the pleasure the White House staff before of the President. the second half of his term Under consideration to sucbegins next January.

Among the Cabinet officers Gabriel Hauge, expected to depart are Secre-Manufacturers Hanover Trust Hickel, Secretary of the Treas- House economic adviser in the ury David M. Kennedy and Sec-Eisenhower Administration. retary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin.

are understood to be ready to Rockefeller, chairman of the depart amicably because of a Chase Manhattan Bank, and mutual agreement with the Representative George Bush, a President that both they and the Republican who lost the Texas Administration could profit by Senate race two weeks ago. the addition of some new faces Mr. Bush is expected to reto the Nixon Cabinet.

Secretary Hickel may be a ment. different proposition. He has criticized the Administration as sideration for the Interior posireluctant to consider the views tion is Representative Rogers of young people, and there is C. B. Morton of Maryland, the no assurance that he will not Republican national chairman.

letter to Mr. Nixon last May picked his Cabinet and is rethat the Administration was ported to prefer it still to his turning its back on the great mass of American youth and

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 - and revolt. The letter was conceed Secretary Kennedy tary of the Interior Walter J. Company, who was a White

Two others are reported to be out of the running for the Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Hardin Treasury post. They are David ceive another Federal appoint-

Among those under conresist attempts to replace him. He was interested in the post Mr. Hickel complained in a when President Nixon first thereby contributing to anarchy Continued on Page 29, Column 1

becomes vacant, it will probof Health, Education and Welfare, who is now a counselor to the President, or Donald Rumsfeld, director of the Office of Economic Opportunity and assistant to the President.

Despite some rumors to the Contrary, there is no immediate.

Haldeman
and Henry A. Kissinger, the national security authority, are currently regarded as fixtures.

Among the Republican election losers who are likely to get major Administration appointments are Representative Clark contrary, there is no immediate prospect that Attorney General John N. Mitchell, Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Secretary of Commerce Maurice H. Stans or Secretary of Housing and Urban Development George Romney will leave the Cabinet. If Mr. Mitchell should leave the Administration to manage President Nixon's 1972 re-elec-tion campaign, the move is not likely to come for at least a mar. Mr. Rogers is reported unlikely to leave the State Department unless a vacancy should open on the Supreme Court Court.

In the background of the exected Cabinet changes are the President's problems put in the spotlight by the election: the national economy and the un-popularity of the Administra-tion's farm program.

White House Changes

Several departures from the White House staff are expected before the end of the year. Bryce Harlow and Daniel P. Moynihan, counselors to the President; James Keogh, head of the White House speech. Moynihan, counselors to the President; James Keogh, head of the White House speechwriting team, and Harry Flemming, Presidential assistant for personnel, may be among those leaving.

The transfer of John D. Er-

Continued From Page 1, Col. 7 lichman, assistant to the President, to another major post in the Administration remains a ably be filled by either Robert possibility. Two other Presiden-H. Finch, the former Secretary tial assistants, H. R. Haldeman ments are Representative Clark MacGregor of Minnesota, who was defeated by Senator-elect Hubert H. Humphrey, and Gov.

Norbert T. Tiemann of Neb-

As for Vice President Agnew, the best available information the best available information is that no final decision will be reached as to keeping him on the 1972 Republican ticket until sometime early in that election year.

While few leading Republicant forces a solution in the ticket, some clearly hold open the possibility that President Nixon may find it politically advisable to choose another running mate.