

..... The news that Mr. [David K.E.] Bruce planned to resign was leaked to the press on Tuesday [13 Jul] by high Administration officials, who asked to remain unidentified. Today's New York Times reports on the leak and says that the officials strongly denied suggestions made in diplomatic circles that the decision to change chief delegates had been a sudden one to delay meaningful negotiations past the South Vietnamese presidential elections in October.