Poff's Decision May Mean Long Delay in Filling Court

NYTimes

By FRED P. GRAHAM OCT Special to The New York Times

4 1971

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3-The Mr. Ford agreed that Court nominees in the wake tive schedule and indications of Representative Richard H. that some Democrats were Poff's abrupt announcement ready to use delaying tactics. yesterday that he had asked President Nixon not to appoint member Supreme Court will be-said today.

Representative Gerald R. Ford, the House Republican Hugo L. Black and former Jusleader, said today that one tice John M. Harlan retired last reason for Mr. Poff's decision month, the Court postponed was his concern that opponents scheduled arguments on a numwould attempt to filibuster un- ber of important cases, appartil Congress adjourned, result- ently expecting that the ing in a long and perhaps acrimonious discussion of the Virginia Republican's record However, the Ni and personal qualifications.

Nixon Administration found it-would have been very easy for self back at the starting point a filibuster to have been gentoday in its search for Supreme erated" because of the legisla-

The result is that the sevengin its 1971 term tomorrow "No real consideration was facing the prospect of a much being given to anyone else," an longer delay than was previofficial close to the situation ously expected before its two vacant seats are filled.

> Shortly after the late Justice vacancies would be filled early

However, the Nixon Adminis-

Continued on Page 25, Column 1

LONG DELAY SEEN

for the Court's "Southern seat." Inominees before the end of the current session of Congress, and that Mr. Nixon will back away argument might be made for from his determination to place holding off any confirmation a Southerner on the Court, so both seats are likely to remain empty until he selects a candidate from the South who can made by Mr. Nixon and other didate from the South who can made by Mr. Nixon and other many the Senate of the current session of Congress, and heavy fire from liberal forces. Sources here were unable to say what effect, if any, Mr. Poff's withdrawal might have on the prospects that the next didate from the South who can made by Mr. Nixon and other seat might go to a woman. One

ONG DELAY SEEN

G. Harrold Carswell, Mr. Nix-nominee has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees the name of Federal District gress and his family a "prowing that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees the name of Federal District gress and his family a "prowing that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees has brought forward that he wished to spare Conons two Southern nominees are provided in the conservative record and controversial" structure on civil rights issues as well as law-and-order questions. Continued From Page 1 Col. 6

Continued From Page 1 Col. 6

Tration was apparently so committed to Mr. Poff that it had not picked a fallback candidate for the Court's "Southern seat."

There has been no indication that Mr. Nixon will back away from his determination as well as well as moderate on civil rights but on the conservative side on crimthe on the conservative side on crimthe that on the conservative side on crimthe could have been influenced by Mr. Wright, a law professor at the University of Texas. Another Option open to the President is option open to the

from his determination to place a Southerner on the Court, so both seats are likely to remain empty until he selects a candidate from the South who can win confirmation by the Senate. Republicans when they blocked has prompted some speculation here that Mr. Nixon may shift his sights toward a more moderate Southerner. A common thread between Mr. Poff and center with his next Southern Poff's decision are still not length of the members had expressed say what effect, if any, Mr. Poff's withdrawal might have on the prospects that the next seat might go to a woman. One source said that consideration was being given in the Administration to holding off nominations until the next session of Congress.

The prospect of further delay former President Johnson's effort to fill the seat that Chief sights toward a more moderate. Southerner A common thread between Mr. Poff and Nixon might move toward the Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. and center with his next Southern known, beyond his statement integrity."

Sources here were unable to say what effect, if any, Mr. Poff's withdrawal might have on the prospects that the next seat might go to a woman. One source said that consideration was being given in the Administration to holding off nominations until the next session of Congress.

The specific reasons for Mr. The specific reasons for Mr. Poff's decision are still not known, beyond his statement and integrity."

could have been influenced by the likely possibility that the American Bar Association's Committee on the Federal Judiciary would give him a less-than-enthusiastic rating.

The committee was meeting in New York on his qualifications when his withdrawal was announced yesterday. Some of the members had expressed cooncern that he had practiced law for only four years before