

Edward Kennedy, addressing meeting of delegates to UAW constitutional convention: "The name of President Nixon now leads the list of American prisoners of the war because he has become the greatest prisoner of them all."