$FChronicle

lames Reston Reports

Nixon's Realistic Peace Offer

By James Reston N.Y. Times Service

New York

underestimated. more specific peace terms may be overlooked and Vietnam that his new and about President Nixon's new military moves in So much has been said of Hanor, and backed his warrior language about the warnings with "arrogance" and insolence For while he talked in

Soviet arms amilitary in Haiphong and the rail challenge to the sea-borne MANNER Analysis Zews D supplies from China, he also offered what amounts to a nam within four months." American forces from Vietdate-certain for the "complete withdrawal of all

SPECIFIC

terms rather than on his to concentrate on his peace hour, it may be more useful Maybe, at this solemn china (not merely Vietnam). cease-fire throughout Indomust be returned. internationally supervised this time than ever before: American prisoners of war "First," he said, "all "Second, there must be an all acts of force throughout fire has begun, we will stop nationally supervised ceaseare released, once the inter-Indochina. "Once prisoners of war selves... tween the Vietnamese themwould allow negotiations and a political settlement befour months . . . (this) forces from Vietnam within withdrawal of all American proceed with a complete "And at that time we will

LIGHT

power in Vietnam, or denothing here about keeping fending the Thieu govern-American air and naval light in the dark, out there is ing for a very thin ray of Well, maybe this is look-

He has been more specific or relying on elections. ment to the end - Mr. Nixon never mentioned Thieu - namese themselves.... nam . . . and a political settlement between the Viet-American forces from Vietplete withdrawal of all within four months, "a comvised cease-fire, and then, cific: Release the American prisoners, agree to a super-The military offer is spea long time to arrange, Hacease-fire begin? If this took momentum and give Saigon noi would lose its military and Washington room to resome serious questions for coup and resupply. both sides. When could the This, obviously leaves months. American forces out in four of war quickly and get all mitted to take the prisoners and Saigon would be comranged quickly, Washington If the cease-fire were ar-sides, but at least Mr. Nixon has suggested a serious and There are risks on both peace of the world. specific basis for negotiahonor of the republic and the aggerated talk about the imnoi, Moscow and Peking tions, which may be more his bombs on the Pekingmediate threat to the 60,000 Hanoi railroad, and his exthan his mines in Haiphong, hopeful for him and for Ha-American troops and the mess. the rhetoric, cut the challenges, end the killing and find some way out of the The problem now to cool air or rail from the Soviet gether to ship more arms by force Moscow and Peking todo with his challenges is to some terrible risks, for the Union through China to Haharbors succeeds, all he will ing of the North Vietnamese of the enemy, and if his mingeography is all on the side brave and he has taken Nixon sounds very

PRISONERS

"the Communist terror and The more he talks about tyranny," and gives Moscow and Peking three days to get and interfere with his dream the two Communist giants ed, the more he will reunite out of Haiphong before the American mines are activatarms in Haiphong. confrontation of mines and it is, could be better than the ganization, and this, poor as the United Nations for deenough to be placed before proposals. lemma with is latest peace bate. The secretary-general self, an escape from this di-They are fair realistic basis for comprom-Moscow and Peking a more as he sounded, gave Hanoi vers create a world crisis. his risky military maneu als should be tested before ise than ever before, and at speech to the Nation, tough least his new peace propos-President Nixon in his everybody, including himpeace." of a new "generation of before the world peace orwillingness to bring the issue of the U.N. has indicated his Still, Mr. Nixon has given