THE NEW YORK TIMES, W

Mrs. Nixon Asserts Jane Fonda Should Have Bid Hanoi End War

sion."

President Nixon's wife, at one of her rare news conferences, in the Yellow Oval Room of the family quarters of the White House, responded sharply to a question about Miss Fonda's recent statements in a later session with reporters in Paris.

Miss Fonda an outspoken

bended knees."

Mr. McGovern has said that he would "beg" Hanoi for release of American prisoners of war if necessary.

Mrs. Nixon tensed somewhat when asked about abortions. "I'm really not for abortion, she said. "I think it's a personal thing. I mean abortion on demand—wholesale."

Apparently disturbed over

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (UPI) said. "Then there wouldn't be —Mrs. Richard Nixon, criticizing Jane Fonda's charges of American bombing damage in Democratic Presidential nom-North Vietnam, said today that the actress should have asked Hanoi "to stop their aggression."

later session with reporters in Paris.

Miss Fonda, an outspoken critic of United States involvement in Vietnam, said in Paris two weeks ago, after visiting North Vietnam, that she was tonovinced "dikes are being bombed on purpose" by United States planes.

She also was reported to have said that American prisoners of war were afraid they would remain in captivity indefinitely if Mr. Nixon was re-elected.

Today, Mrs. Nixon said that Miss Fonda had denied making the broadcast in North Vietnam. "I think she should have been in Hanoi asking them to stop their aggression," Mrs. Nixon ments.