

.....

New Press ^{JAN 26 1973}Secretary for*Vice President*SFChronicle*Washington

J. Marsh Thomson, a former foreign service officer, has been named press secretary to Vice President Spiro T. Agnew.

Thomson has served for the past two years as assistant director of the vice president's Office of Intergovernmental Relations.

Thomson succeeds Victor Gold, who recently resigned from Agnew's staff to become a political media consultant.

Associated Press
