Senate, 75 to 10, Votes to Confirm Saxbe

By LESLEY OELSNER

Special to The New York Times
WASHINGTON, Dec. 17-

Nixon's order to dismiss Archi-bal Cox as the special Water-crat of Mississippi.

ate prosecutor.

The Richardson resignation WASHINGTON, Dec. 17—In a quick and friendly proceeding, the Senate voted tonight to confirm Senator William B. Saxbe, Republican of Ohio, as Attorney General.

The vote was 75 to 10, with Mr. Saxbe voting present and Saxbe as Mr. Richardson's suc-least value of Mr. Cox by Acting Attorney General.

The vote was 75 to 10, with Mr. Saxbe voting present and Saxbe as Mr. Richardson's suc-least value of Mississippi. Senator Saxbe has great "common sense" and a sense of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. Senator Charles H. Percy, Republican of Illinois, said that the subsequent dismissal of humor, too, Senator Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, aid next. General.

The vote was 75 to 10, with Mr. Saxbe voting present, and it came after less than 15 minutes of discussion. It came, too, less than a week after President Nixon formally submitted the nomination to the Senate.

With his wife Dolly looking down from the front row of the visitors gallery and Vice President Ford presiding, Senator Saxbe as Mr. Richardson's successor was generally believed to be based in large part on the likelihood that, because of the Senate's tradition of supporting its own members, Mr. Saxbe could be confirmed.

The Senate, for its part, more than lived up to its tradition. First it passed a law designed to skirt a clause in the Constitution prohibited the appointment.

Praise by Colleagues

The vote was 75 to 10, with The nomination of Senator Saxbe were devoted to "the problems of the subcontinent" and were "great friends" of India and Bangladesh.

Even Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Mepullican of Illinois, said that both Mr. and Mrs. Saxbe wore devoted to "the problems of the subcontinent" and were "great friends" of India and Bangladesh.

Even Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Mepullican of Illinois, said that both Mr. and Mrs. Saxbe wore devoted to "the problems of the subcontinent" and were "great friends" of India and Bangladesh.

Even Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator Charles H. Percy, Senator

during his term in office has voted a salary increase for the post. Congress had increased the Attorney General's pay during Mr. Saxbe's term as a Senator. The new legislation cuts back the salary from $60,000 to $35.000.

$35,000.
Then the Senate Judiciary Committee gave Mr. Saxbe an abbreviated friendly hearing. During those sessions even the Democratic members made clear that they were questioning him not in an effort to stop his nom-

I think he'll make a very able Other Attorneys Geenral and Attorney General," said Sena-the Justice Department itself grateful" for the confidence the Senate had placed in him.

"I don't take it lightly," he said. "I hope to live up to the expectations you have placed in me."

Mr. Saxbe will be President Nixon's fourth Attorney General, replacing Elliot L. Richardson, who resigned in October rather than obey Mr. attoring Mr. Saxbe's term as a Senator of Senator of Senator of Senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His television campaign ads showed such things as an American magnetic of the senator in 1968 on a law-and-order platform. His law-and-order platform. His law-and-order platform. His law-and-order platform. His law-and-order platform. The law-and-order platform and law-and-order platform. His law-and-order platform. The law-and-order platform and law-and-order platform.

Dubious on Gun Control

He is also dubious about gun control, partly, he told the Senate Judiciary Committee last week, because of his "back-ground" as a hunter and marksman and partly because he does not think it would cut down not in an effort to stop his nomination but instead to put his views on the record.

And today, from both sides of the aisle, Senators were quick to speak in favor of their Republican colleague.

not think it would cut down on violence.

Mr. Nixon's first Attorney General was oJhn N. Mitchell, who left the post to run the President's re-election campaign and is now under indict-Republican colleague.

"He is a very fine man, and out of that campaign. ment for acts allegedly rising

35

as Attorney General

had been accused from time to he promised to "depoliticize" time before that for supposed-ly political acts, but with Mr.

But Senator Saxbe, with exly political acts, but with Mr.

ly political acts, but with Mr. Mitchell in office, and then with Watergate, the criticism mounted.

So last summer, when Mr. Richardson took over the department, replacing Mr. Nixon's second Attorney General, Richard G. Kleindienst, who was also implicated in Watergate,