

The Good News Women -- Campaigning for Nixon

by Marlene Cmons
L.A. Times Service

Washington

Three dozen wives of cabinet members and White House officials, along with the women appointees of the Nixon Administration, will soon begin a six-week series of trips across the United States to campaign for the president.

.....

"I don't see why we can't take this bugging story off the front page and replace it with some good news, something constructive," said Mrs. Barbara MacGregor, whose husband, Clark MacGregor, is director of President Nixon's re-election campaign.

.....