Kennedy Panel Charges Government Conducted Limited

By WALTER RUGABER

Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1 - A said today that the Federal Government had conducted Congressional subcommittee half of 1972. said today that the Federal Government had conducted only a limited investigation of evidence suggestion "a wide range of espionage and sabo-"

Said today that the Federal Government had conducted only a limited investigation of evidence suggestion and these will presumably be convention headquarters, and investigators of the following:

Said today that the Federal Government had conducted repeated contact with the repeated contact with the following:

Said today that the Federal Government had conducted repeated contact with the repeated contact with the following:

Said today that the Federal Government had conducted repeated contact with the repeated contact with the following:

Said today that the Federal Government had conducted repeated contact with the repeated contact with the tain records of various types," if aces a series of important decisions before the inquiry can and these will presumably be convention headquarters, and investigators the following:

in a letter by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, who is chairman of the Subcommittee and the S the Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure. The panel began a study of the Watergate affair that ended Tuesday, will be on the activities of Donald H. taken over and expanded by a Segretti, a lawyer from Marina committee under Senator Sam Del Ray, Calif. J. Ervin Jr., Democrat of North Carolina.

liminary stages the hearings the allegations. would go far beyond an ininquiry on the break-in at the offices of the Democratic National Committee.

tee chairman.

pionage and sabotage activities did occur during the recent Presidential campaign."

Kennedy said.

The White House study was conducted by John W. Dean 3d and initiated" no later than the Nixon has said it cleared those middle of 1971, Senator Ken-still working for him, but the nedy said, and were concen-study's contents have never Mr. Ervin, who is chairman of trated during the primary con-been publicly disclosed. tests conducted during the first Mr. Kennedy said that an un-Committee and the Constiturange of espionage and sabotage" in last year's political campaign.

The observation was made convention neacquatters, and white House aides during relevant time periods," the subcommittee chairman charged.

No names were mentioned in The Congressional inquiry, expected to be significantly it is understood the subcommit-broader than the criminal trial tee has in part concentrated

A number of Mr. Segretti's acquaintances said last fall A number of Congressional that he had offered them jobs sources said in interviews to-day that while the Ervin in-the President's behalf. Mr. Sevestigation was still in its pre-gretti has refused to discuss

White House Study

There were also reports during the waning stages of the Mr. Kennedy's remarks were campaign that Mr. Segretti had in a letter summarizing the pan-been paid, at least in part, by el's work last year and propos-ing a budget for the coming yer from Newport Beach, Calif., year. The letter went to Sena- who has represented Mr. Nixon. tor James O. Eastland of Mis- 'e "Neither the Federal crimisissippi, the Judiciary Commit-nal investigation nor the White House administrative inquiry The Kennedy panel, an arm included an substantial investi-of the Judiciary Committee, gation of the alleged sabotage said evidence it has gathered and espionage operations apart since October "strongly indi-from those surrounding the cates that a wide range of es-Watergate episode itself," Mr.

conducted by John W. Dean 3d. The operations were "planne counsel to the President. Mr.

strong backing from the Demo-carried out by either of his excratic leadership, has indicated isting panels, but the Senator that he will summon various is understood to favor a special Presidential advisers for ques-select committee of five or tioning on espionage operations seven members with a staff when hearings begin.

He has also indicated an inof the recent trial today.

the Government Operations specified number of Senate sub-tional Rights Subcommittee, turned over to Senator Ervin's these, his aides said today, are investigators. the following:

The North Carolinan, who has The investigation could be drawn from various places.

He has also indicated an interest in the Government's posed Senate resolution that prosecution of the men convicted in the break-in at Democratic headquarters, and several the investigators will have and aides were reading transcripts of the dimensions of the inquiry.

Bugging Investigation

The chairman must decide estimates of the time required sumably a prominent and relatively nonpartisan lawyer, will be selected to head the investi posed witnesses.

Presidential aides have in-also is in doubt. None of the lower amounts. Senator's staff expects hearings for at least six weeks, and most whether a special counsel, pre-for a preliminary study ran to tively nonpartisan lawyer, will be selected to head the investigation and, if so, who it will be.

The Senator must hire a staff of investigators, the size of which would depend in part on the information available from the Department of Justice and on the cooperation of proposed witnesses.

In a related development today, the Government asked Chief Judge John J. Sirica of the Federal District Court here to set bonds high enough to ensure the appearance for sentencing of the two men convinced in the Watergate trial Tuesday.

The two G. Gordon Liddy

The two, G. Gordon Liddy and James W. McCord Jr., have voked executive privilege in been held in jail since the guilty refusing to appear before converging to appear bef gress, but Mr. Ervin has indicated a strong interest in limiting the scope of this doctrine.

Since who has set $100,000 surety bonds for others convicted in the case, did not rule with the case, wh The pace of the investigation on the two men's requests for

REMEMBER THE NEEDIEST!