

Since April 30, when Mr. Nixon addressed the nation on the Watergate affair, he has made only three public appearances. He spoke at military installations in Mississippi and in Virginia, and to former prisoners of war at the State Department. - UPI, NYTimes 7 Jun 73.