The Federal Diary

Civil Servants Polled on Watergate

By Mike Causey

Three out of four civil servants responding to a poll by the Federal Times newspaper believe that President Nixon was directly involved in the planning for the Watergate break-in, or the subsequent cover-up attempts.

The newspaper, with a circulation of 80,000 ran a five-ques-tion box in its last three is-sues, asking subscribers their opinion on the Watergate affair. From about 3,200 responses, The Federal Times allegations—wiretapping, use branch of government. We last of unreported cash and relatthey're involved, whether they like it or not. We had heard a like it or not. We had heard a like it or not. We had heard a ed political activities—known like it or not. We had heard a as Watergate are factual?" lot of rumblings from people, Eight per cent said they did and complaints that morale not believe the charges, and 20 had been damaged by Waterper cent said they believed gate." most of the newspaper ac-

Watergate break-in, and 30 per cent said he did not.

 Asked about a "cover-up" of Watergate, 77 per cent said they thought Mr. Nixon did participate in attempts to bury or whitewash political espio-nage charges, and 22 per cent said they did not believe the President was involved.

• 69 per cent of those answering the ballot checked "yes" to the question: "Has Watergate shaken your confidence in the current administration?" Twenty eight per cent said "no" to the ques-

• 32 per cent of the respondents said they had suffered as civil servants because of Watergate. Sixty-four per cent said it had not affected them.

Asked why the newspaper had conducted the poll, editor Tom Scanlan replied: "There reports:

• 72 per cent of those an- Tom Scanlan replied.

swering checked "yes" to the are roughly 2.5 million employees in the executive ployees in the executive ployees in the executive ployees.

Scanlan said the newspaper

lieved Mr. Nixon had "prior steam" and get their views devoted to the Watergate bal knowledge" of the planned out. "We don't pretend that lot." any vote of 3,200 speaks for all 2.5 million employees," Scanlan said, "but if more than 1,-000 of those responding said they thought they had been damaged, as civil servants, by the Watergate, that is something."

> The newspaper stands today — said that lots are still coming in. - said that balhad them from every state, and from foreign service officers overseas," Scanlan said. Newspaper employees who counted the ballots said that about 30 had been thrown out because they represented at-tempts to "stuff" or slant the vote. But the newspaper feels that the vast majority of votes it received represented the true feelings of individuals, some of whom identified themselves by grade and agency.

Earlier this year, the newspaper ran a survey on employee attitudes toward the four-day week. In that case the favorable response was much larger than the Watergate poll—with about 24,000 votes received. Part of this is attributed to the assumption that the poll ran longer - in Scanlan said that most of the ballots came from outside of Washington, where the newspaper has about 75 per cent of its circulation. "The old idea that only people in Washington and New York care didn't hold up here," Scanlan said.

Information Government Workshop: The Public Relations Society plans a works shop today, beginning at 5 p.m. at the National Press Club. Panelists are William I. Greener Jr. of Housing and Urban Development; Alvin Me Hattal of IRS, and Treasury's Alan Wade. Call John Corris 466-5762, for details.

Jobs: D.C. Unemployment Compensation Board has fulltime and part-time openings for contact representatives $3.70 per hour. Call 393-7915, ext. 500.

Rockville Openings: HEW at the Parklawn Building has 10 clerk-typist and clerk-steno vacancies, Grades 2, 3 and 4. Call 443-4003.

Bureau of Public wants a Grade 12 supervisory counts.

felt this was a way to let gov- about six issues of the newspa- personnel management speed for three issues cialist. Call WO 4-7717.