

Watergate Plea Denial

New York

Former Nixon campaign aide Herbert Porter yesterday denied a published report that he prepared to plead guilty to conspiring to obstruct justice in the alleged White House coverup of the Watergate burglary.

The New York Daily News had reported that it had been told by informed sources that Porter would "plead guilty to one count of conspiracy to obstruct justice in connection with his admitted perjury before Federal Watergate probers."

United Press