

A Watergate
Break-In Of Another Kind

Another Kind

Washington

Two Washington teenagers have been charged with stealing tapes and notes concerning the Watergate scandals from ABC news correspondent Bill Gill.

Police said the two were caught by a security guard on the second floor of the ABC building in downtown Washington early yesterday.

"We are satisfied that there is no connection between this incident and the current Watergate scandals," said a police detective.

"We have closed the case with the arrest of two district youths."

Associated Press

10 AUG 73

WXPost gives date as "early Saturday [25 Aug]"