Nixon Family Christmas
Planned at White House

WASHINGTON, Dec. 24 (AP) — President and Mrs. Nixon plan a quiet Christmas dinner at the White House with family and friends, a spokesman said today.

The Nixons also planned to exchange gifts around the Christmas tree in the living quarters Christmas morning.

The 4 P.M. Christmas dinner in the Red Room will include roast turkey and dressing, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie.

At the dinner, in addition to the President and Mrs. Nixon, will be their daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Eisenhower and Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Cox, as well as the Eisenhowers' friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milligan, and the President's personal secretary, Rose Mary Woods.

Mr. Nixon is expected to spend at least part of the day in his office. He has scheduled a meeting Christmas Day with Secretary of State Kissinger and will also continue to review legislation sent him by the just-adjourned Congress, aides said.
