

Pat Gets Volunteer Group Post

30 957 73

San Clemente

President Nixon appointed his wife and 24 other persons Sunday to a National Voluntary Service Advisory Council, a panel established by Congress to help co-ordinate federal volunteer programs.

Mrs. Nixon was designated temporary chairman of the council, which will elect a permanent chairman.

White House aides said Michael Balzano, former White House aide who now is director of ACTION, recommended Mrs. Nixon.

Others appointed to the council were:

George Magar Mardikian, San Francisco; Michael Sotirhos, New York; John B. Charon, Greenwich, Conn.; Eleanor Beard, Portland, Ore.; Charles L. Bartlett, Washington, D.C.; Jerome H. Holland, Bronxville, N.Y.; Jean Vaughan Smith, San Marino, Calif.; John McClaughry, Lyndonville, Vt.; Gary Donald Hughes, Dover, Del.; Robert J. D'Anniballe, Steubenville, Ohio; Eyvon Mendenhall, Webster Grove, Mo.; Frank E. Fitzsimmons, Bethesda, Md.

Also, Bernard Weinberger, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Anita Martinez, Dallas, Tex.; T. M. Alexander Sr., Atlanta; W. Clement Stone, Winnetka, Ill.; Jane Pickens Langley, New York; Joseph Ladislaus Osajda, Park Ridge, Ill.; Dwight O. Seegmmer, Decorah, Iowa; Sara J. Harper, Cleveland; Troy A. Newcome, Los Alamos, N.M.; Rita Crocker Bass, Dallas, and Frank D. Stella, Detroit.

Associated Press