Nixon Delays

His Address

Washington

President Nixon has decided to postpone his State of the Union address for one day because of a conflict with a long scheduled congressional dinner, it was learned yesterday.

Mr. Nixon had originally decided to deliver his State of the Union address to Congress on January 29. At the request of Senate GOP leader Hugh Scott, it was put off until January 30. Both Scott and House Speaker Carl Albert (Dem-Okla.), are to attend a congressional dinner at the National Press Club.
