WXPost

ennis Panel to Probe Document

By Michael Getler Washington Post Staff Writer

The Senate Armed Services Committee decided yesterday to investigate the unauthorized funneling of secret White House documents to the Joint Chiefs of Staff in 1971

Committee Chairman John C. Stennis (D-Miss.) said it was decided to hear testimony by Secretary of State Henry A Kissinger and the chairman of the joint chiefs, Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, "as soon as possible on this matter."

In a statement issued after closed-door meeting, Stennis said that after these two officials have been heard, Jack Anderson! "the committee will decide what further steps to take."

the committee also will hear mains unclear if the yeoman ence, - Defense from several other figures was simply "overzealous" in James R. Schlesinger said his central to allegations raised in his duties, as has been alleged, recent weeks about a military or if he was ordered by superispy ring operating within the ors to use all methods to col-Kissinger-run National Secu-lect data. rity Council that was bent on keeping the military brass in the joint chiefs' White House tivity.

the Stennis statement of defi- aide David Young. nite plans to ask Navy Yeoman 1/C Charles E. Radford to White testify. Radford allegedly was group formed to investigate uments to be sent back to tary document-passing opera-Adm. Moorer's office, and in tion. passing material to columnist. Young is also the author of Schlesinger would not have these allegations, was transfer- ation as a military spy ring.

Similarly, Radford's boss in formed about Kissinger's ac-liaison office, Adm. Robert O. Welander, was not mentioned, There was no mention in nor was former White House

House "plumbers" involved in accumulating doc- news leaks and later, the mili-

a report that allegedly de-made such remarks if the Pen-Radford, who has denied scribes the liaison office oper-tagon chief had read the

This leaves open whether red but never punished. It re- In a recent press conferown informal investigation indicated there had been some "improprieties" but "illegalities" and no military "spy ring" operating.

Schlesinger indicated that while he had not read the Young report, the Pentagon's own investigation led him to believe the episode had "been blown out of all context" and Young was a member of the that if Young had concluded there was a "spy ring," such a conclusion was wrong.

Yet the former chief of the plumbers, Egil (Bud) Krogh, said in Seattle last week that Young report.