WASHINGTON, June 5 (AP)

— President Nixon's two brothers appeared under subpoenas today before staff investigators of the Senate Watergate committee and declined to answer some questions, Senator Herman E. Talmadge, Democrat of Georgia, said.

Senator Talmadge said that the brothers, F. Donald Nixon and Edward C. Nixon, had failed to appear at a second scheduled session today. The panel is investigating $100,000 that Howard R. Hughes, the industrialist, gave to Charles G. Rebozo, the President's close friend.

The committee has reportedly received testimony by Herbert V. Kalmach, the President's former personal attorney, linking the Nixon brothers to the Hughes gift. Sources said that Mr. Kalmach testified he had been told by Mr. Rebozo that gifts and loans were made from the Hughes money to the Nixon brothers and to Rose Mary Woods, the President's personal secretary.

Mr. Rebozo, according to sources, has denied making such payments and has insisted that he returned the money intact to Mr. Hughes last year.

In Key West, Fla., it was learned today that Mr. Rebozo had sold his Monroe County Land and Title Company for an undisclosed amount. Robert Dison, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of the Florida Keys, said that First Federal had bought the title-search company.
