

TV Coverage

Live television coverage of the House Judiciary Committee impeachment debates begins today at 4:30 p.m. on KGO (Channel 7).

KQED (Channel 9) will begin tape delayed coverage of the proceedings at 7:30 p.m.

Live coverage, which is being rotated by the TV networks, will resume tomorrow on KPIX (Channel 5) and Friday on KRON (Channel 4). Times of these broadcasts will be announced later.

KCBS radio (740) will broadcast the debates live beginning at 4:30 p.m. today. KNBR (610) will air wrapups of the debates 20 minutes after each hour beginning at 5:20 p.m. KGO (810) will feature spot live wrapups throughout the proceedings. KQED-FM (88.5) will air the proceedings live until their conclusion today beginning at 4:30 p.m.