AUG 1 6 1974 Watergate Figures Plan Housing Project

MIAMI, Aug. 15 (UPI)—Mi-ami John Priestes, fresh from a six-month prison term for members of the Watergate same day Priestes arrived last election of the President in January, but he and Priestes 1972. Priestes said he will direct had had business dealings prea six-month prison term for bribery, and three convicted will handle sales.

bribery, and three convicted Watergate burglars plan to build a housing development in Central Florida to be called "Watergate Hills."

Priestes was convicted of offering bribes to an aide of U.S. Sen. Edward Gurney (R-Fla.), and served six months in prison. His associates are Bernard Barker, Eugenio Martinez and Water and Virgilio Gonzales, all construction and the others will handle sales.

construction and the others wiously.

"I have to make a living," said Barker. "I have a lot of attorney bills and I can't think of any better way to do it than through the sweat of your brow. This is perfect rehabilitation."

Priestes, Martinez and Gonzales, all of water and a lot of hills there."

Priestes, Martinez and Gonzales to be an atorney bills and I can't think of any better way to do it than through the sweat of your brow. This is perfect rehabilitation."

Priestes also has testified before the Watergate grand jury in Washington about a sproach to customers, added, "We promise not to bug them."

viously.

He said he expected the participation of Barker, Mar-tinez and Gonzales to be an