DEAN JAIL TERM

Ex-White House Aide Begins House. Sentence for Cover-Up

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UPI)

in a few weeks time, Mr. Dean pected to be served at the will be a prosecution witness at the trial of some of his called the served at the federal prison camp at Lompoc, Calif., near his home. TO START TODAY former colleagues who are accused of covering up the cused of covering up the former White House aide, an-

The slender, scandal in the Nixon White nounced in mid - April last year he would not be made the Watergate scapegoat, and be-Former President Richard M. Nixon, whom Mr. Dean served as White House counsel during the critical early months of the dismissed him two weeks later,

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (UPI)

John W. Dean 3d is scheduled to go to prison tomorrow for his role in the Watergate coverup.

Mr. Dean was to turn himself in to United States marshals to begin the 1-to-4 year prison term he received last month for his plea of guilty to a single count of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

The surrender point is to be the Federal Courthouse where,

The ritical early months of the Watergate crisis, has been and has been subspirator and has been subspirator and has been subsported to begin septence as a witness.

The trial is scheduled to begin Sept. 30 before United States District Judge John J. Sirica.

This plea of guilty to a single count of conspiracy to obstruct justice.

The surrender point is to be the Federal Courthouse where,

PESOPTS

The critical early months of the Watergate crisis, has been named an unindicted co-conspiracy critical documents that underscored his dramatic testimony before the nationally televised Senate Watergate hearings.

After intensive bargaining, Mr. Dean pleaded guilty to a one-count conspiracy charge last Oct. 19. He was the first microwally microtical documents that underscored his dramatic testimony before the nationally televised Senate Watergate hearings.

After intensive bargaining, Mr. Dean pleaded guilty to a one-count conspiracy charge last Oct. 19. He was the first major Watergate figure to admit guilt and the last to be brought to justice by Archibald Cox, special Watergate prosecutor, who was dismissed by President Nixon.

Sentencing was delayed until Aug. 2, while Mr. Dean testified again and again before Watergate grand juries. His testimony apparently was crucial in obtaining indictments against the men who will go on trial next month—John N. Mitchell, H. R. Haldeman, John D. Ehrlichman, Robert C. Mardian, Gordon C. Strachan and Kenneth W. Parkinson, Mr. Dean was also believed to have aided prosecutors in igetting guilty pleas from a number of other men.

Judge Sirica delayed the start of Mr. Dean's term for a month because Mr. Dean's mother-in-Sentencing was delayed until because Mr. Dean's mother-in-law was ill and Mr. Dean was helping to care for her in California.

"I admire him for that,"
Judge Sirica said.